

META/PHYSICAL / cataloguing the physical into the digital

META/PHYSICAL

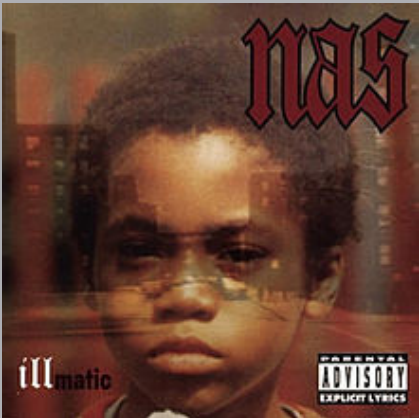

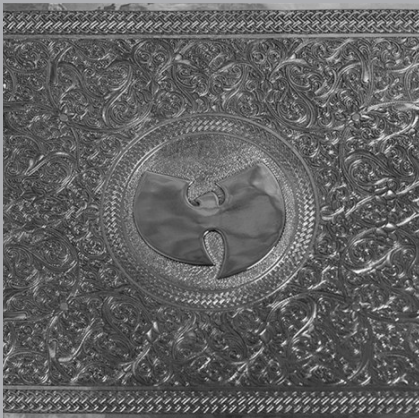

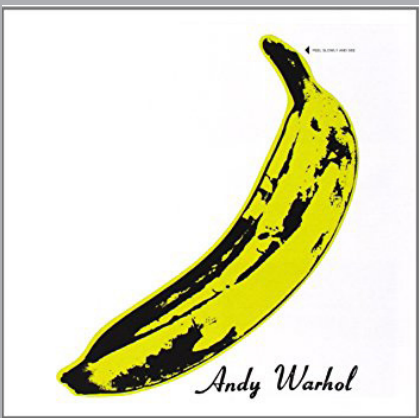

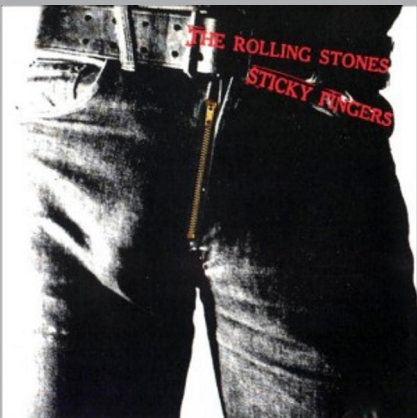

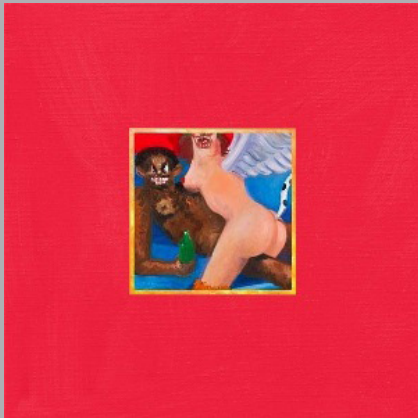

/ cataloguing the physical into the digital about

sort ▾ random

display ▾ 5x3

genre ▾ all

the selection that users can look through when they get to this webpage when one of the album covers is hovered over, the button that is the cover will turn show the album name, artist, and year of release under, indicating to the user that it can be clicked on using their mouse taken to another webpage

the ways in which users can change the overall ordering, view, and contents of the album selection sort: random, alphabetical, & chronological display: 5x3, 4x4, & 3x4

genre: hip-hop/rap, r&b/soul. rock & roll, alternative, punk, etc.

the title and the tagline that encompasses the project as a whole when it is hoverd over, the button itself will turn black the button users would click on to go back to the home page the button users click on to see what the premise of this catalogued site is all about when it is hovered over, the button itself will turn black indicating to the user that it can be clicked on using their mouse taken to description page bar at the side of the catalogue to indicate scrolling is possible to view more of the entries the next row of albums to view once users scroll down further size is minimized and the opacity is low to hint at how there is much more for whoever is on the page to see

Dimensions of screen:

1680 px

x

1050 px